THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE.

We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the los ty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malig-

JAMES MADISON, in a special message to Con gress, Dec. 18, 1811, said, While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dauntless spirit of fortitude victo-riously displayed by every description of troops engaged, as well as the collected firmness which distin-guished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and discipline James Manison in his message to Congress

Nov. 1812, said, An ample force from the States of Kentucks Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars under the command of Brigadier Gen. Hannison, possesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not less distinguished by their political stations than by

In Mr. Madison's message of Dec. 1813, the empliment was extended, as follows:

The success on Lake Eric having opened a par sage on the territory of the enemy, the officer com manding the Northwestern arms, transferred the war thither, and, rapidly pursuing the hostile troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced a general action, which quickly terminated in the capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage

This result is signally honorable to Major GEN RAL HARRISON, by whose military talents it was Prepared.

"Sir-The House of Representatives of the Indiana territory, in ther own name, and in behalf of their constituents, most cornially reciprocate the congratulations of your Excellency on the glorious result of the late sanguinary conflict with the Shaw-nee Prophet, and the tribes of Indians confederated lowing: with him; when we see displayed in behalf of our country, not only the consummate abilities of the general, but the heroism of the man; and when we following persons for promotions and appoint take into view the benefits which must result to that country form those exertions, we cannot, for a moment, withhold our meed of applause."

The following resolve of both houses of the Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the slander respecting the "white horse," and the fall of the gallant Col. Daviess:

Legislature of Kentucky, Jan. 7, 1812. Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Kentucky, that in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wabash, Joy. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool deliberate, skilful and gallant conduct in the battle of Tipecanoe, he well deserves the warmest thank of his country and his nation.

Gen. Anthony Wayne, in his Letter to the Sec. retary of War, giving an official account of his sanguinary Indian Battle, in 1792, said:

"My faithful and gallant Lieutenant Harrison rendered the most essential service, by communicating my orders in every direction, and by his conduct and bravery, exciting the troops to press for

Lastly we come to the neat compliment Thomas Richie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of the Coalition in South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless sword with two broken points," and threatens

"General Harrison's letter tells us every thing that we wish to know about the officers, except him-He does justice to every one but Harrisonand the world must therefore do justice to the man who was too modest to be just to himself."

SALT RIVER HERALD.

Under this title the undersigned proposes to put lish, in the Town of Paris, Monroe County, Mis souri, a Weekly Journal, to be devoted, principally to Political, Agricultural, Commercial, and Scientific information, but to embody the usual variety which is found in a FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

In Politics, the paper will be thoroughly Whigh The Editor in no respect doubts the election of General Harrison to the Presidency, and as little doubts that the course of his administration will be such as to deserve the support of the Republican party, of which he is a member. If so, it shall have his. He will be pleased, also, to act with the same enlightened party in reference to measures of State policy, and will do so, to the extent of his capacity, and the acquiescence of his judgment.

As the name he has chosen was intended to in dicate, his paper will "HERALD" alike the wrongs and the virtues of the world around it-regardless of whom it may effect, in praise or in censure. A every variety of price, Door Mats, &c. &c. FLOOR OIL CLOTH, from 3 feet to 21 feet wide Newspaper, on any other principle, is a misnomer and a mockery.

The untiring zeal with which the Democratic party in this State, carried on the war in our late elections—together with the villany, industry, and the celerity with which they carried into execution their plans, will remain as an alarming and an enduring monument of Democratic enterprise! Like the fabled Dragon, which is said never to close his the County Court of Chariton county, on the second process of John J. In one word, the time has again approached, when we must all enter upon a great political contest. Like that through which we have just passed in our State, it will be a contest of principle against power a contest of the people against the office-holders. We are none of those who indulge in gloomy anticipation. We do not despair of the Republic. Our trust is strong, that the gallant ship, in which all our hopes are embarked, will yet outride the storm saved alike from the breakers and billows of dis, union, and the greedy whirlpool-the all engulphing malestrooms of executive power-that un broken, if not unharmed, she may pursue her pros-perous voyage far down the stream of time; an that the banner of our country, which now waves over us so proudly, will still float in triumphon the winds of heaven, fanned by the breath of fame, every stripe bright and unsullied, every star fixed in its sphere, ages after each of us shall have ceased to gaze on its majestic folds forever.

We shall commence and continue the good fight, till error, sick with contradiction, and crazed with a superabundance of inconsistency, shall be seen flying to falsehood as a remedy, and expiring from the venom of its own fangs. We will continue the warfare, till the night of superstition shall pass away--the purple morn of reason shall dawn—the tints of truth appear -- and the gloomy mists fade in the distance, and sink below the horizon to rise no more!--Till the hallowed name of Liberty, more fragrant than the Spring gales of Arabia, more balmy than Gilcad's air, thrills the bosom where despair once revelled, and whispers, "good tiding: for all mankind." In a word, we trust, we shall not relax our efforts, till trophies of victory, in smiles and peace, deck the brows of those who once were saddened with doubt and uncertainty, and sunk with political sorrows, to the depths of a
